Safeguarding and Foreign Nationals – Risk Assessment Form Template and Guidance Notes

Safeguarding and UK Citizens who have lived or worked overseas.

The following guidance outlines Hertfordshire County Council’s procedure when recruiting either UK citizens who have lived overseas or recruiting non UK citizens into a post that requires an enhanced DBS disclosure. This document should be read in conjunction with the Safe Staffing (DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service)) Policy and Procedure. The subsequent risk assessment form on page 2 must be completed by a manager with knowledge of the role and service, ensuring that the appropriate safeguards are in place.

The Disclosure and Barring Service cannot currently access criminal records held overseas, therefore a DBS check may not provide a complete picture of an individual’s criminal record. It is considered good practice to obtain a certificate of good conduct from the embassy of the country the applicant has specified they have spent a significant period of time in.

As stipulated within the Safe Staffing (DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service)) Policy and Procedure this is part of an applicant’s pre-employment checks please note that a DBS and all other recruitment checks must be sought taking extra care with references and other background checks.

Limitations of Certificate of Good Conduct/Letter of Good repute
Managers and heads should note that the information provided on certificates of good conduct / letters of good repute can be subjective due to the following reasons;

- Data protection
- Political willingness e.g. Countries with political unrest are unlikely to provide information.
- Culture e.g. age of consent in a number of EU countries is less than 16.
- Each country may provide different information, and in some cases, will not provide any information. For details of what each country is able to provide, please refer to the CPNI Website.

Obtaining a Certificate of good conduct/good repute
The applicant is responsible for requesting a ‘Certificate of Good Repute/Letter of Good Conduct’ from the home embassy of that country which can authenticate the document. It also reduces the need and cost for potential translation requirements. Costs for the certificate/letter can vary according to the country and the applicant must cover this charge.

Applicants must provide a certificate of good repute / letter of good conduct from a country that is able to provide one. If this is not obtained, they must provide evidence that an attempt was made to obtain a certificate / letter.
