Dear Sirs,

Mr D.E.
Chipping Hall, Chipping, Buntingford

We enclose herewith a letter duly signed by our Client in respect of the dedicated Public Rights of Way. We would be grateful if you would please complete the date which we have left blank on the letter.

We understand from our Client that he would be prepared to maintain and trim the Public Rights of Way on the understanding that he will be reimbursed from the Council for any time and work involved and we would be grateful if you would please let us know whether this proposal would be acceptable to you and if so please confirm that our Client will be reimbursed for his time and work.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully,

S. J. May
