Dear Sir,

FOOTPATH MAP ETC

I refer to Section 34.6 of the Highways Act 1959, under which owners of land can deposit with District Councils a 6 inch map, and a statement as to the ways admitted to have been dedicated to the public. This will be sufficient to negative the owners intention to dedicate any additional ways.

I am the owner of Hedgeswood Common, Gaddesden Row. This area is shown on the attached map, edged and hatched red. The map is a copy of the statutory footpath map, and the ways admitted are as shown on that map.

I hereby deposit this map, and will you please confirm that it is satisfactory for your purposes under the Highways Act as referred to above.

Yours faithfully,
