

LiFE entry criteria

1: Candidate must	2: Crime & anti-social behaviour	3: Education	4: At HFRS discretion
Be aged 13-17+	If in the past year:	If a child:	Considerations could include:
Be referred by agency or partner registered with HFRS +	The young person has committed a proven offence, or	Is underperforming at school	A child on a Child Protection Plan or at risk of being a looked after child
Have consent of parent/guardian to attend LiFE course +	The young person has an anti-social behaviour order, ASB injunction, ASB contract, or	Has been permanently excluded, or	Frequent Police call-outs or arrests
Have not previously successfully attended a full LiFE or Cadets course +	The young person's household is subject to a housing related ASB investigation	Has had 3 or more fixed exclusions across the last 3 consecutive school terms, or	Mental and emotional health problems
In some way demonstrate attendance relevant to HFRS aims & objectives	The young person is involved in anti-social behaviour but has no convictions	Is in a pupil referral unit or alternative provision because of exclusion, or	Drug and alcohol misuse
		Is not on the school role, or	Not in employment
		Has had 15% unauthorised absences or more across the last 3 consecutive terms

Notes:

Candidates must satisfy criteria in Column 1.

Candidates must satisfy at least one of the criteria in Columns 2 or 3.

Candidates not meeting criteria in Columns 2 or 3 may still be considered at the discretion of HFRS officers if they appear in.